

Storytelling through Music and Movement

Featuring Kira Goodkind, Pre-School Music Specialist from

Golden Acorn Music

Nov. 19, 2024 | 10:30AM-12PM

Participants will learn:

How to understand the connection between music, movement, and storytelling – We'll explore how music and movement are integral to storytelling, helping to create an immersive experience. Using voice, song, rhythm, tempo, dynamics, and basic body movements, we'll develop characters and central themes within stories.

This workshop is tailored for license-exempt caregivers and Family, Friend, and Neighbor (FFN) care providers. Children in your care are welcome to join as well!
